BOX SCORES OFFINAL 2001 GRAND CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

By an Ancient Scottish Reporter

STANFORD – On Friday, September 07, three teams assembled on the Sand Hill Field A to decide the Grand Champion for 2001. The first game was between the “C” Division Champion CNS Reds managed by Jar Larson against the “B” Division Champion Door Closers managed by Eddie Ferraz. The Door Closers won the coin toss and elected to be the home team.

The Electric Leaches are the SUMC Co-Ed Slow Pitch Softball Grand Champions with a season record of 14 wins and 0 losses.

But we have found that this will not be the final edition of The SUMC Sentinel. One more Special Edition will be written sometime soon to publish this reporter's SUMC 2001 “Observations from The Sidelines.” As Yogi Berra said when he was managing the Yankees in 1964 and yelled to the players who were not paying attention to the game, “You can observe a lot by watching.”
